United Nations Assistance to the Khmer Rouge Trials

The Extraordinary Chambers in the Courts of Cambodia (ECCC) is a domestic court supported with international staff, established in accordance with Cambodian law. Under the terms of Agreement between the United Nations and the Royal Government of Cambodia, the Extraordinary Chambers will bring to trial senior leaders of Democratic Kampuchea and those who were most responsible for the crimes and serious violations of Cambodian penal law, international humanitarian law and custom, and international conventions recognized by Cambodia, that were committed during the period from 17 April 1975 to 6 January 1979. The ECCC receives technical assistance from the United Nations Assistance to the Khmer Rouge Trials (UNAKRT).

The ECCC and UNAKRT are seeking to establish a JOINT ROSTER for the functions of:

TRANSLATOR (English/Khmer) or (Khmer/English)
(10/ROSTER/CMS/03)

Under the overall supervision of the Chief of the Court Management Section and the direct supervision of the Head of Interpretation and Translation Unit (ITU), with professional and technical assistance from the Senior Coordinator, ITU, the incumbent shall perform the following duties:

- Translates various Khmer Rouge documents and/or legal texts from Khmer into English and vice-versa, in due compliance with deadlines and appropriate terminology;
- Identifies and submits new terminology material for the consideration of revisers.
- Utilizes electronic audio systems for providing simultaneous interpretation;
- Performs other associated duties as required.

Successful candidates will be placed on a roster from which future consultancies for UNAKRT and staff positions in ECCC will be recruited.

QUALIFICATIONS AND EXPERIENCE:

- Advanced university degree in translation, modern languages, law or a related field or an equivalent diploma;
- 5 years of relevant experience in translation from Khmer into English or vice versa;
- Excellent computer skills, and typing skills of Khmer (Unicode) and English.
- Good communication and interpersonal skills, teamwork and professionalism and commitment to continuous learning.

LANGUAGES:

- Khmer, English and French are the working languages of the ECCC. For the functions advertised, fluency in written (Unicode) and spoken Khmer and English is required. Knowledge of French is an advantage.
